To Our Community Partners,

The Police Training and Standards Commission has developed a 16-hour trial board training program for civilian members and retired judges. Training will cover police procedures utilizing lecture, case studies, and situational based learning. Training will consist of 2 consecutive 8-hour days. Trial Board Members may not miss any time during this training period. We will begin scheduling training once members are identified.

We will rely on the chairperson of each Police Accountability Board (PAB) to act as a conduit for identifying the selected Trial Board Members requiring training. PAB Chairpersons should contact pab.acc@maryland.gov to provide their contact information as well as Trial Board membership names. Any question regarding registration can be sent to pab.acc@maryland.gov.

Please reach out to me at wayne.silver@maryland.gov or the Director of Law Enforcement Training, Mr. Robert Wagner, at robert.wagner2@maryland.gov with any additional questions or concerns regarding this training.

Sincerely,

Wayne R. Silver, Sr.
